WHAT TO VISIT IN VILNIUS

A guide to explore the city on foot!

Gediminas Castle Tower: Start your day by visiting the Gediminas Castle Tower. This iconic tower offers panoramic views of the city and the surrounding areas. You can hike up the hill or take a funicular to reach the tower.

Cathedral Square: After descending from the castle, head to Cathedral Square, the main square of Vilnius. Here, you'll find the Vilnius Cathedral with its impressive neoclassical facade and the Bell Tower. You can also visit the Cathedral Treasury and the crypt.

Old Town: Take a stroll through the charming streets of Vilnius Old Town. This UNESCO World Heritage site is known for its well-preserved medieval architecture, cobblestone streets, and cozy cafes. Don't miss Pilies Street, one of the oldest and most picturesque streets in the city.

Užupis District: Head to the Užupis district, often referred to as the "Republic of Užupis". This bohemian neighborhood is known for its artistic vibe, unique street art, and the Užupis Constitution, a playful declaration of independence displayed on a wall in multiple languages.

Church of St. Anne: Visit the Church of St. Anne, a stunning example of Gothic architecture. Its intricate red brickwork makes it one of the most photographed buildings in Vilnius.

Bernardine Gardens: If you're looking for a tranquil spot, visit the Bernardine Gardens. This park is a great place to relax and enjoy nature within the city.

Gediminas Avenue or Vilnius street: Spend your evening on Gediminas Avenue, the main shopping and dining street in Vilnius. It's a great place for shopping, enjoying a leisurely dinner, or simply people-watching.

Vilnius University: Take a leisurely stroll through the Vilnius University campus. The courtyards and buildings are steeped in history and offer a serene atmosphere.

Vilnius at Night: Wrap up your day by enjoying the city's illuminated landmarks. The Cathedral Square, Gediminas Castle Tower, and other key buildings look magical when lit up at night.
